An order was filed in the court of land registration yesterday registering the title of Wong Fan to 5529 square feet of land situate on Kuakini street and valued at $1200.

A regular meeting of the members of the Hawaii Promotion Committee will be held at the rooms of the committee, Bishop St. side, Young Hotel Building, today at 3:30 o'clock p. m.

It was just seven years ago today that Honolulu received the first news that the city of San Francisco had been destroyed by earthquake and fire.
The stricken city was well filled with Honoluluans at the time and efforts to locate missing friends by cable were fruitless. Messages were sent around the world in the effort to get news from the ruined city, the returns only being meager and unsatisfactory. Local relief committees were organized and thousands of dollars sent to the relief of the sufferers.

William Miles, secretary to the mayor, expressed his opinion this morning that the job of collecting money is a difficult one and not at all a fitting pastime for one of his position. Miles is attempting to collect sufficient funds for the retaining in this city of the four laughing jack-asses, owned by Joseph the Birdman, the purchase of these birds for the city being deemed by the board of supervisors as being a needless expenditure of the county's money. However, Miles says that he is determined to uphold the cause and raise the money even if he has to take a part of it from his own salary.

The board of harbor commissioners may require the Oahu Railroad Company to have a drawbridge placed in the center of the trestle which is now being thrown across the cut-off on the way to Pearl Harbor. It is believed that the trestle as now planned would render useless about one-third of Kahuli harbor.

In a decision handed down yesterday, Judge Whitney of the circuit court denied the motion of the plaintiffs for a re-trial in two long-mooted land cases relative to the title to property on Kaula. Elizabeth Kalo, defendant in both cases, created a considerable sensation when she appeared as witness during the course of the trial and was said to have exerted some influence upon the jurors by reason of her great beauty and the hypnotic power of her large brown eyes. The two cases are that of William K. Uuku vs. Elizabeth Kalo and Kaupena (w) vs. the same.

DIABETES YIELDS IN HOSPITAL

Place—Good Samaritan's Hospital in Dawson City, Yukon Territory, Alaska.
Patient—G. A. Hatch, a business man of Dawson.

Case—Diabetes, believed to be incurable the world over.

Prognosis—Hopeless, not only because physicians consider it so, but the condition of the patient was so extreme that death was believed to be not far away.

A friend of Hatch's by the name of E. S. Strait, auctioneer of Dawson, heard about his plight, and called upon him. Strait told Hatch that five years ago he was in the same fix and sent to California for Fulton's Diabetic Compound, and it restored him to business.
He stated that he kept some of it on hand and would loan Hatch some till more could be had from San Francisco.

To the surprise of the doctor, nurses and Hatch's friends he was soon able to leave the hospital. Instead of being in his grave, as was fully expected, four months later found him on a visit to his old home in Portland, Maine.

Passing through San Francisco he called at our office and gave us this item in person.

If you have diabetes and are over fifty years of age you owe it to yourself and family to try Fulton's Diabetic Compound before giving up. You can get it at Honolulu Drug Co.

BUSINESS ITEMS

Although there was an improved feeling with regard to conditions in Europe and at home, the New York stock market ruled dull yesterday.
Most of the buying was to fill the requirements of the shorts. The market closed steady.

A follow-up campaign is proposed by F. L. Waldron, vice-chairman of the sugar protection committee. Responses from many recipients of letters on the mainland are highly encouraging. The Star-Bulletin has a large batch of these to print as space permits.

Following were the closing prices of Hawaiian stocks in San Francisco yesterday: Hawaiian Commercial, 37.50 asked; Honokaa, 4.50 bid, 5.75 asked; Hutchinson, 16.25 asked; Kilanea, 12 asked; Onomea, 25.50 asked; Paahau, 14 bid; Union, 25.50 asked; Honolulu Plantation, 25 bid.

"What are the facts?" asks the New York Tribune, referring to talk about the Philippines that all expectations of their becoming commercially valuable were empty dreams. And it answers the question thus: "The commerce of these islands last year was about three times as great as it was in 1900.
It was more than twice as great as that of all the German colonies, though the latter are about twice as populous as the Philippines. It was nearly twice as large as that of Siam, though the two countries are nearly equal in population. It was considerably larger than that of French Indo-China, though the latter is more than twice as populous as our islands. It was 41 per cent of that of the Dutch East Indies, though the latter are five times more populous than the Philippines. In other words, since our occupation and control of them, the islands have far surpassed in commerce all other countries which are fittingly be compared with them."

Further, the Tribune shows that the increase is almost entirely between the Philippines and the United States, in both directions. "In 1900 the share of this country in Philippine commerce was inconsiderable. Now it is 40 per cent of the whole, and in another year or two is likely to be more than one-half of it. Our trade with the islands, divided almost equally between imports and exports, was much larger than with Russia or with Austria-Hungary; more than one-third as large as with Italy, and as large as with Sweden, Norway and European Turkey all put together."

It may be added that the trade between Hawaii and the Philippines amounted to $368,395 in 1911 and $189,266 in 1912.
